

Dear Mr. Wahono,

As you already might know, you have been nominated for the World Summit Award (WSA) as a national finalist from your country and thus as the producer of best product in one of the WSA categories.

The WSA Grand Jury of eminent experts from 36 countries met in Dubai from October 17-22 to evaluate over 800 products which have been nominated from 130 countries.

During the evaluation, the WSA Grand Jury has selected 5 most outstanding products in each of the 8 WSA Categories – the 40 WSA Best Contents Products.

In addition, 21 best practise examples from Africa, Asia, Arab Countries and Middle East, Europe, Latin America, North America with Australia and New Zealand have been chosen.

I am most delighted to be able to inform you that your product "IlmuKomputer.Com - Indonesian Free eLearning Community in Computer Science and Information Technology" has been selected by the Grand Jury as one of the 21 Continental Best Practice Examples (special mentions) in the Category e-Learning!

Your product will be publicly presented to the world community at the WSA Exhibition, held in the framework of the World Summit on the Information Society (WSIS) 2003 called for by the United Nations and organised by the ITU in Geneva, December 9-13. As well, you and your product will be published in the WSA Best Contents Catalogue, which will printed in time for the WSIS.

The best practice examples were selected by the grand Jury in order to assure that each of the six world regions is represented in each of the 8 WSA categories.

We will be happy to welcome you as guest at the WSA Events and Exhibitions at the WSIS and will send you an official invitation to the Showcase Event within the next week.

Congratulation again and thank you for being part of the WSA!
